- (C) That the Court retains jurisdiction of the lawsuit after our withdrawal;
 - (D) That you have the burden of keeping the court informed respecting where notices, pleadings or other papers may be served;
 - (E) That you have the obligation to prepare for trial or hire other counsel to prepare for trial when the trial date has been set; and that you have the obligation to file any appeal or hire other counsel to file any appeal;
 - (F) That if you fail or refuse to meet these burdens, then you may suffer adverse consequences;
 - (G) That there are no proceedings currently scheduled, but there is a pending Motion for Reconsideration filed on your behalf. The Defendant's response to that motion is due no later than September 30, 2021.
- You will have an opportunity to file a reply in support of the Motion for Reconsideration within fourteen (14) days of the date of the Defendant's response. Any notice of appeal must be filed within thirty (30) days of the Court ruling on the pending Motion for Reconsideration. These deadlines will not be affected by our withdrawal;
- (H) That service of notices may be made upon the you at your last known address; and,
 - (I) Unless the withdrawal is with your consent, you have a right to object to our withdrawal within fourteen (14) days of the date of the notice.

After the fourteen days have passed from the date of your receipt of this notice, we will file a motion seeking the court's permission to withdraw.

Sincerely,

Jeff Filipovits
